To the Curious, the Searching, and the Uncertain
An Invitation of Hope Before or During the Great Tribulation

If you are reading these words, it's likely something deep within you has begun to stir. Maybe you're asking questions you've never asked before. Maybe recent events have unsettled you, made you wonder about the world, about the future, or even about eternity. Perhaps fear, uncertainty, or a quiet whisper in your soul brought this book into your hands.

You are not here by accident.
This book wasn't written to scare you—but to wake you up. It's meant to shine a light on the reality of God, the truth of the Bible, and the hope of salvation through Jesus Christ. The world may look like it's unraveling—and in many ways, it is. But long before the headlines, Scripture already told us what would come. It speaks of a time called the Great Tribulation*—a period of worldwide chaos, judgment, and deception.*
Whether you are reading this before, during, or after that time begins, one truth remains unshaken:
God loves you.
He sees you.
And He wants to save you.

You might be thinking, "I'm not religious," or "I've made too many mistakes." But that is exactly the point. Jesus didn't come to save the perfect. He came to save people like all of us—broken, flawed, wandering. The Bible says:
"While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."
— Romans 5:8

God's invitation isn't limited to the qualified or the religious. It's for everyone—including you.
If your heart is open, even a little, here is a simple prayer you can say sincerely right now:
"Jesus, I don't have all the answers, but I believe You are real. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. I'm sorry for living without You. Please forgive me, save me, and make me new. I turn from my way and trust You with my life. Be my Savior and my Lord. Thank You for loving me. Amen."
If you prayed those words from your heart, He heard you.
Right now, you are no longer alone. You are part of God's family— saved, forgiven, and forever His.

"These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."
— Revelation 7:14

The Survival Guide to the Great Tribulation

This book is your guide through the hardest chapter the world will ever face. It's not here to teach you how to escape suffering—but how to endure it with eternal purpose*. You may find yourself walking through hunger, persecution, fear, and grief. But if your robe has been washed in the blood of the Lamb, you are not a victim of this world. You are a* survivor of the Great Tribulation*, and a* citizen of the kingdom to come*.*
This is more than a manual for physical survival. It is a declaration of spiritual victory*.*
It will remind you how to stay faithful when faith costs everything.
How to trust Jesus when the world demands your worship.
How to cling to hope even when it feels like darkness has won.
There will come a day when the sky splits open, the trumpet sounds, and the Lamb you trusted through every storm will welcome you home.
On that day, you will not be found wearing rags of fear—but robes of righteousness, washed clean by His blood.
You are not alone. You are not forgotten. And you are not giving up.
You are part of a remnant*. A* warrior*. A* witness*.*
And this is your survival guide*.*

You were made to overcome.

The world didn't end with a bang—it started falling apart in stages. A plague here. A war there. Natural disasters growing in size and fury. Governments rising and falling. Freedoms slowly dissolving while a new global order promises peace through control. Many watched in confusion. Some in fear. A few recognized the pattern.

This guide is for those ready to stop guessing.

The Survival Guide to the Great Tribulation exists because you're not just living in history—you're living in prophecy. The things happening around you are not random. They were foretold in a book most have ignored, misquoted, or never opened: the Bible. Inside its pages are warnings, timelines, symbols, and events that describe—often in haunting detail—what you're now seeing with your own eyes.

This isn't a theology course. It's not a sermon. It's a field manual for the spiritually unprepared.

Whether you believe in God or not, the events unfolding are shaping every part of your life—economy, politics, culture, even your ability to speak freely. To make sense of it, and more importantly, to survive it, you need context. You need the truth that has outlasted empires, revolutions, and disasters. You need to understand what time it is—and what's next.

This book will walk you through the essential pieces of biblical prophecy: who the key figures are, what signs to watch for, and how to respond when the world demands your allegiance. It will challenge what you think you know. And it may shake you. But better to be shaken now than lost later.

You found this guide for a reason.

Don't waste it.

2 Timothy 1:7 (KJV 1900): 7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

The Great Tribulation

The final 3½ years, or the Great Tribulation

(Revelation 13–16; Matthew 24:21–22), are ruled by the Antichrist and empowered by Satan. The False Prophet promotes global worship of the Beast, and the Mark of the Beast becomes mandatory—no one can buy or sell without it. God's judgment is poured out through trumpet and bowl judgments: natural disasters, poisoned waters, darkness, scorching heat, demonic torment, and more. Persecution intensifies against anyone who refuses to worship the Beast.

The Last 3½ Years of the Great Tribulation

If you are reading this now and experiencing the global turmoil, persecution, and spiritual upheaval described here, you are living in what Scripture calls the Great Tribulation—specifically, the final 3½ years of it. According to biblical prophecy, this is the most intense period of judgment and suffering the world will ever face. Yet in the midst of the darkness, there remains a call to stand firm in faith, to endure, and to look ahead to the glorious return of Jesus Christ.

The Abomination of Desolation

The final 3½ years of the Tribulation are set in motion by a cataclysmic event known as the Abomination of Desolation. The Antichrist—who initially rose to power through deception and a false peace—will break his seven-year covenant with Israel. In a bold and blasphemous act, he will enter the rebuilt temple in Jerusalem and declare himself to be God. This event, prophesied in Daniel 9:27, Matthew 24:15, and 2 Thessalonians 2:4, marks a turning point in prophetic history. It initiates a time of unprecedented persecution, deception, and divine judgment. Those who understand biblical prophecy will recognize this moment as a signpost: the final countdown to Christ's return has begun.

The Two Witnesses During the Great Tribulation

The Two Witnesses (Revelation 11:3–13)

Who Are the Two Witnesses?
According to Revelation 11:3–13, the Two Witnesses are two prophets appointed by God to prophesy during a key period of the end times—the 1,260 days (or 42 months / 3½ years). Scripture does not reveal their names, but describes their divine authority and mission.

Revelation 11:4 says:
"These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth."
This imagery recalls Zechariah 4, suggesting they are empowered by the Holy Spirit and have a unique role in God's plan.

Note: Some traditions suggest their identities might be Moses and Elijah (because of their miracles and appearances in other Scriptures like the Transfiguration), or Elijah and Enoch (as both were taken to heaven without dying). However, the Bible does not explicitly confirm who they are.

What Will They Do?

The Two Witnesses are granted power from God to carry out a specific mission:

- Prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth, symbolizing mourning and repentance. (v. 3)
- Call people to repent and warn of God's coming judgment.
- Perform powerful signs and judgments:

* "If anyone would harm them, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes." (v. 5)
* "They have power to shut the sky, that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying." (v. 6)
* "They have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they desire." (v. 6)

These signs echo the ministries of Moses and Elijah, but the authority comes directly from God.

What Happens to Them?

- When they finish their testimony, the Beast from the bottomless pit (associated with the Antichrist) will make war on them, conquer and kill them. (v. 7)
- Their bodies will lie in the great city, which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where also the Lord was crucified—this refers to Jerusalem. (v. 8)
- The world will rejoice over their deaths, refusing burial and exchanging gifts, because they had been a torment to those living in rebellion. (v. 9–10)
- But after 3½ days, the breath of life from God enters them, and they stand up—terrifying all who see it. (v. 11)
- Then a loud voice from heaven calls them: "Come up here!" and they ascend to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watch. (v. 12)
- A great earthquake follows, killing 7,000 people, and the survivors are terrified and give glory to the God of heaven. (v. 13)

Why Are They Important?

The Two Witnesses represent God's unwavering commitment to truth and mercy, even during the darkest days of judgment:

- They are God's appointed messengers during the Great Tribulation.
- Their ministry proves that God still calls people to repentance.
- They demonstrate that truth cannot be silenced, even by death.
- They reveal that God preserves a faithful witness, even when the world embraces deception.

Their ministry is a reminder that God reigns, even amid chaos, and He will vindicate His servants.

Persecution of the Saints

Following the Abomination of Desolation, a wave of severe persecution breaks out across the globe. The Antichrist, filled with fury and empowered by Satan, directs his hatred toward two specific groups: the Jewish people and those who have come to faith in Jesus Christ after the Rapture. These believers, having recognized the truth and surrendered to Christ during the Tribulation, will become the targets of a worldwide campaign of violence and oppression.
As Revelation 13:7 reveals, the Antichrist is given authority "to make war with the saints and to overcome them." Many Christians will be forced into hiding. Others will be imprisoned or executed. The cost of discipleship will be high, and martyrdom will be common. Yet even in death, these believers will overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony (Revelation 12:11).

The Mark of the Beast
During this period, the Antichrist institutes a global economic system requiring all people to receive a mark on their right hand or forehead in order to buy or sell (Revelation 13:16–18). This mark is not simply a commercial tool; it is a spiritual pledge of loyalty to the Beast and a rejection of Jesus Christ. The Bible gives a dire warning: anyone who takes the mark will face the full wrath of God and eternal separation from Him (Revelation 14:9–11).
For those living in this time, the decision is stark—submit to the Antichrist and lose your soul, or refuse the mark and risk your life, yet gain eternal life in Christ. This is the ultimate test of allegiance. Followers of Jesus must stand firm, even unto death.

The Intensifying Judgments of God
As human wickedness increases and the Antichrist's power grows, God unleashes a final wave of judgments upon the earth. These are known as the Bowl Judgments, and they represent the full outpouring of divine wrath. Detailed in Revelation 16, these judgments include painful sores on those who accepted the mark, the transformation of water sources into blood, scorching heat from the sun, supernatural darkness, the drying up of the Euphrates River, and preparations for the final battle at Armageddon. The series culminates in a devastating global earthquake and hundred-pound hailstones.

These are not natural disasters but direct acts of God's judgment against an unrepentant world. Each plague reveals the justice of God and the urgency of repentance. Still, many harden their hearts, choosing rebellion over redemption.

The Rise and Fall of Babylon

During the final years of the Tribulation, a corrupt world system known as Mystery Babylon rises to global prominence. Babylon symbolizes a fusion of false religion, political tyranny, and economic exploitation. It becomes a seductive, global power that deceives the nations and persecutes the saints.

But Babylon's triumph is short-lived. As recorded in Revelation 17–18, God brings swift and total judgment against this system. In one day, Babylon falls—its wealth destroyed, its influence shattered, its leaders mourning in terror. This judgment marks a turning point: the end of man's rule and the imminent return of the true King.

The Battle of Armageddon

The final confrontation between good and evil culminates in a gathering of the world's armies under the Antichrist at a place called Armageddon—the Valley of Megiddo in Israel (Revelation 16:16). These armies assemble to make war against God Himself, demonstrating the insanity of Satan's deception and the depravity of human rebellion.

But the battle will not be long. In Revelation 19:11–21, the heavens open, and Jesus Christ returns, riding a white horse, crowned with glory, and accompanied by the armies of heaven. With a word from His mouth, He strikes down the nations, defeats the Antichrist, and casts both the Antichrist and the False Prophet into the lake of fire.

The Glorious Return of Christ

With the forces of evil defeated, Jesus Christ inaugurates His millennial kingdom. According to Revelation 20:1–6, Satan is bound for 1,000 years, and Christ rules the earth in righteousness, peace, and glory. The saints who endured the Tribulation will reign with Him. The long-awaited promise is fulfilled: justice is established, creation is restored, and the knowledge of the Lord covers the earth as the waters cover the sea.

In the final 3½ years of the Great Tribulation, the lines between good and evil are drawn clearly. There is no neutrality. The cost of faith is high, but the reward is eternal. If you are living through this time, take courage. Endure in Christ. Resist the Beast. Reject the mark. Stand firm. The King is coming—and His kingdom will have no end.

How to Accept Jesus and Receive Eternal Life (Even During the Great Tribulation)

A Message of Hope for These Final Days

If you're reading this during the chaos of the Great Tribulation, you may feel overwhelmed, afraid, or uncertain about what comes next. But one thing is still true, even in the midst of judgment and suffering: Jesus Christ is still offering salvation to anyone who will receive Him.

The book of Revelation doesn't just warn about God's wrath—it also reveals God's mercy, even in the darkest hours of human history. This chapter will guide you step-by-step on how to accept Jesus Christ and receive eternal life, even now.

Believe in Jesus Christ and His Testimony

"These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."
— Revelation 7:14

Jesus is the Lamb of God (Revelation 5:6–9), and His blood was shed to cleanse sinners. Believing in Jesus means trusting that His death on the cross paid the price for your sins. He alone can cleanse and forgive you. In Revelation 1:5, we read that He "washed us from our sins in His own blood." That gift of cleansing and eternal life is still available—even now.

To believe in Jesus is to take Him at His Word:

1. That He is the Son of God.
2. That He died for your sins.
3. That He rose from the dead.
4. That He is returning as Judge and King.

Repent and Turn from Sin

"And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God... and repented not to give him glory."
— Revelation 16:9

Tragically, many people during the Tribulation will refuse to repent, even as God's judgments fall. But repentance is vital to salvation. To repent means to turn away from your sin and turn toward God in humility.

You must recognize that your way leads to death, but God's way leads to life. Don't follow the crowd in rebellion—choose repentance. Confess your sin. Turn from it. Surrender your will to God's.

Worship God, Not the Beast

"If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark... he shall be tormented... forever."
— Revelation 14:9–11
"And I saw... them that had gotten the victory over the beast... and over his mark..."
— Revelation 15:2
You are living in the time when the Mark of the Beast is being enforced (Revelation 13:16–17). To take it means aligning yourself with Satan's final system. Do not take the mark. No matter how much it costs you, no matter how difficult it becomes to live—refuse it.
Worship God alone. He created you. He sent His Son to save you. He is worthy of your trust, even when the world demands compromise.

Keep the Faith and Obey God's Commandments

"Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."
— Revelation 14:12
True believers in the Great Tribulation are known by two marks—not on the hand or forehead, but on the soul:

- Faith in Jesus
- Obedience to God's Word

Keep believing. Hold fast to the truth. Refuse to deny Christ, even when you're pressured or threatened. Obey what the Bible says, and walk in righteousness, even when it's hard.
Be Willing to Suffer or Die for Christ

"They loved not their lives unto the death."
— Revelation 12:11
"I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus... and they lived and reigned with Christ..."
— Revelation 20:4

Martyrdom is a very real possibility in these days. Many who accept Christ now will suffer and may die for their faith. But death is not the end. For those who die in Christ, resurrection and reward await. Revelation promises that those who lay down their lives for Jesus will live and reign with Him.

Fear not death—fear God and trust in His promise of eternal life.

A Simple Response of Faith

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him..."
— Revelation 3:20

Jesus is knocking at the door of your heart. You don't need a church building, a priest, or a ritual. You need a repentant heart and genuine faith. Here is how to respond:

1. Acknowledge your sin: Admit that you have sinned and cannot save yourself.
2. Believe in Jesus: Trust that He died and rose again to save you.
3. Repent: Turn away from sin and toward God.
4. Receive Him by faith: Invite Him into your life and follow Him, no matter what it costs.

You can pray a prayer like this from your heart:

"Lord Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. I repent of my sin and ask for Your forgiveness. I receive You as my Lord and Savior. Please help me follow You faithfully, even in the midst of this chaos. I give You my life. In Jesus' name, Amen."

The Choice Is Yours

You may never have a peaceful life again here—but you can have eternal life. In the Great Tribulation, there is no middle ground. You must choose:

The Beast, or the Lamb.
Fear, or faith.
Death, or eternal life.

Jesus is still saving. Right now.
Don't wait. Open the door.
Eternal life is yours—if you will receive it.

What to Do When Everything Falls Apart

The world you once knew is gone.
The systems have collapsed.
Truth has been outlawed.
And following Jesus has become a death sentence.

You may be reading this from a dark place—physically, emotionally, or spiritually. Maybe you've just accepted Jesus and now the weight of that decision is crashing down on you. You're being hunted, hated, rejected. You can't buy food. You can't get medicine. You can't even exist in society without the Mark of the Beast. You feel like the world is pressing in from every side. And maybe you're wondering: Did I make a mistake?

Let me say it clearly: No, you didn't. You made the only decision that leads to eternal life.

Jesus never promised that following Him would be easy—especially in the final days. In fact, He said just the opposite:

"You will be hated by all nations because of Me." — Matthew 24:9
"But the one who endures to the end will be saved." — Matthew 24:13

This chapter is for those who feel the cost of faith in real time. When the shelves are empty, when your name is on a list, when you're hiding from a government that demands your soul in exchange for survival—this is your guide. Not to make life easier, but to help you hold on when everything around you crumbles.

You are not alone. You are not forgotten. And you are not defeated.

This is how you endure:

1. Stay rooted in the Word, even if all you have is one torn page.

2. Pray like your life depends on it—because it does.

3. Seek out others who follow Jesus, even in secret.

4. Refuse the Mark, even if it costs you everything.

5. Cling to eternity, because this world is passing away.

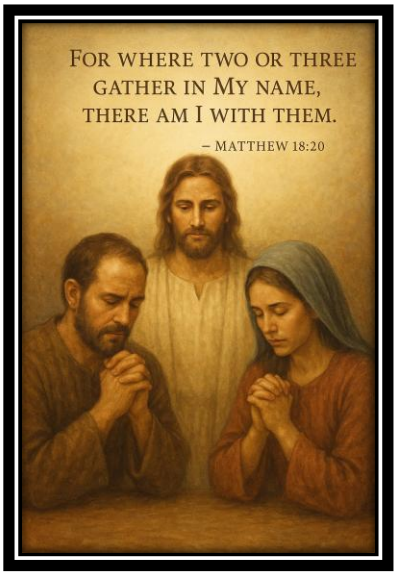
"They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death." — Revelation 12:11

You're not surviving just to stay alive—you're standing so that your soul is not lost.
And Jesus sees you. He will return. And when He does, your suffering will turn into glory.

This is the darkest chapter in history. But it ends with light.
Hold the line. Heaven is coming.

One Accord, One Mission (Stronger Together)



"For where two or three gather in My name, there am I with them." — Matthew 18:20

In a world unraveling at the seams, isolation can feel like safety—but it's a trap. The enemy wants you alone, silent, and discouraged. But Scripture tells a different story: we are stronger together. In the chaos of the End Times, fellowship isn't optional—it's survival.

You were not designed to walk this journey alone. The early church thrived under persecution because they were united in one accord—in faith, in love, and in purpose. The same mission still burns in us today: to stand firm, to love one another, and to reflect Jesus in the darkness.

"They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers." — Acts 1:14

"And the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul." — Acts 4:32

🕊️ Together We Stand, Divided We Fall

When we gather—even just two or three—Jesus is present. That's not just symbolic. That's supernatural.

"Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken." — Ecclesiastes 4:12

Whether in a hidden home church, a whispered prayer circle, or a shared Scripture under the stars, unity brings strength.

Together, we:

5. Bear each other's burdens (Galatians 6:2)
6. Encourage one another daily (Hebrews 3:13)
7. Stir one another up to love and good works (Hebrews 10:24)

One Mission: Endure, Encourage, Evangelize
In the End Times, our mission becomes even more urgent:

- Endure – Hold fast to the faith, even when it costs you everything.
- Encourage – Remind others they're not alone. Your words might keep someone from giving up.
- Evangelize – Tell the truth boldly. In a world drowning in lies, the Gospel is light.

"Let us not give up meeting together... but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching." — Hebrews 10:25

Stronger Together, Even in Tribulation
Don't believe the lie that you're too broken, too scared, or too late. You are part of God's family, and your presence matters. Every voice, every prayer, every act of love is a flame in the darkness.
In these final days, may we be like the believers in Acts—gathered in one accord, filled with boldness, and moving with one mission: to be the hands and feet of Jesus until He returns.
One body. One Spirit. One hope. Stronger together.

Final Words – Holding On to Hope

"Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful."* — Hebrews 10:23

You've come this far. Through chaos, collapse, betrayal, loss—and yet you're still here. Still reading. Still holding on. That matters more than you know.

In a world where truth is punished and evil is praised, holding on to hope may feel like weakness. But in God's eyes, it's strength. It's worship. It's warfare. Because when everything around you falls apart, hope becomes a weapon—the kind the enemy can't touch.

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."* — Hebrews 6:19

Hope doesn't mean pretending things are fine. Hope means knowing Jesus is coming, and the pain has an expiration date. The tribulation may rage, but the victory is already written.

You're Not Just Surviving—You're Enduring
The Bible doesn't promise an easy road. But it does promise a glorious ending.
"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain..."* — Revelation 21:4
This life is the battleground. Eternity is the reward. Don't trade it for anything—not comfort, not safety, not survival.

What You're Holding On to Isn't a Feeling—It's a Person
Hope has a name: Jesus.
He is not far off. He is near. He sees your faith. He counts your tears. And He's already prepared a place for you.
"In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."* — John 16:33
Even now, as the world trembles and burns, Jesus is getting ready to return—not as a lamb, but as a conquering King.

The End Is Not the End
The Great Tribulation is not the final word. The Antichrist is not the final ruler. Death is not the final chapter. Jesus is.
And if you've placed your faith in Him, your story ends in glory—not because of what you've done, but because of who He is.
So hold fast. Encourage one another. Speak truth. Shine light.
And when the sky breaks open and the King returns, you'll know: It was all worth it.

Final Thought:

"Behold, I am coming soon. Hold fast what you have, so that no one may seize your crown."* — Revelation 3:11

The darkness is deep.
The fire is real.
But so is the hope.
And so is the King.
Hold on. You're almost home.

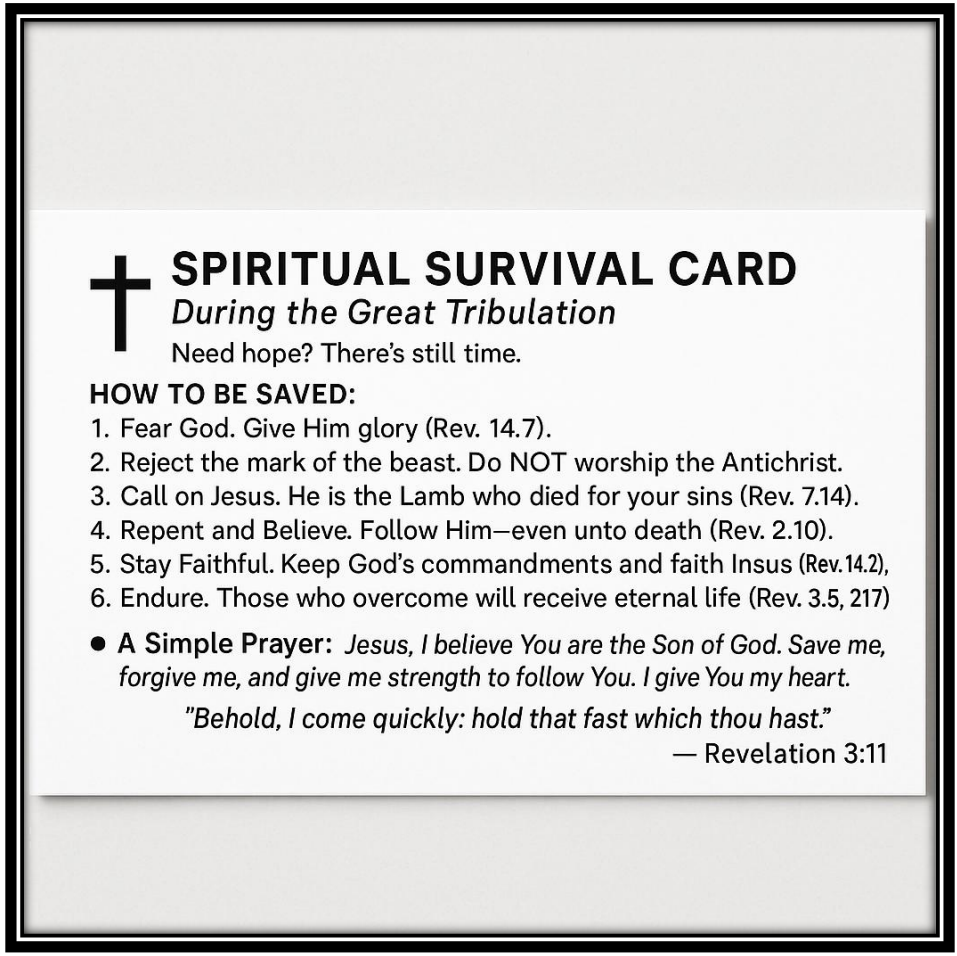
Spiritual Survival Card



SPIRITUAL SURVIVAL CARD
During the Great Tribulation
Need hope? There's still time.
HOW TO BE SAVED:
1. Fear God. Give Him glory (Rev. 14.7).
2. Reject the mark of the beast. Do NOT worship the Antichrist.
3. Call on Jesus. He is the Lamb who died for your sins (Rev. 7.14).
4. Repent and Believe. Follow Him—even unto death (Rev. 2.10).
5. Stay Faithful. Keep God's commandments and faith Insus (Rev.14.2),
6. Endure. Those who overcome will receive eternal life (Rev. 3.5, 217)
A Simple Prayer: Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God. Save me, forgive me, and give me strength to follow You. I give You my heart.
"Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast."
— Revelation 3:11

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

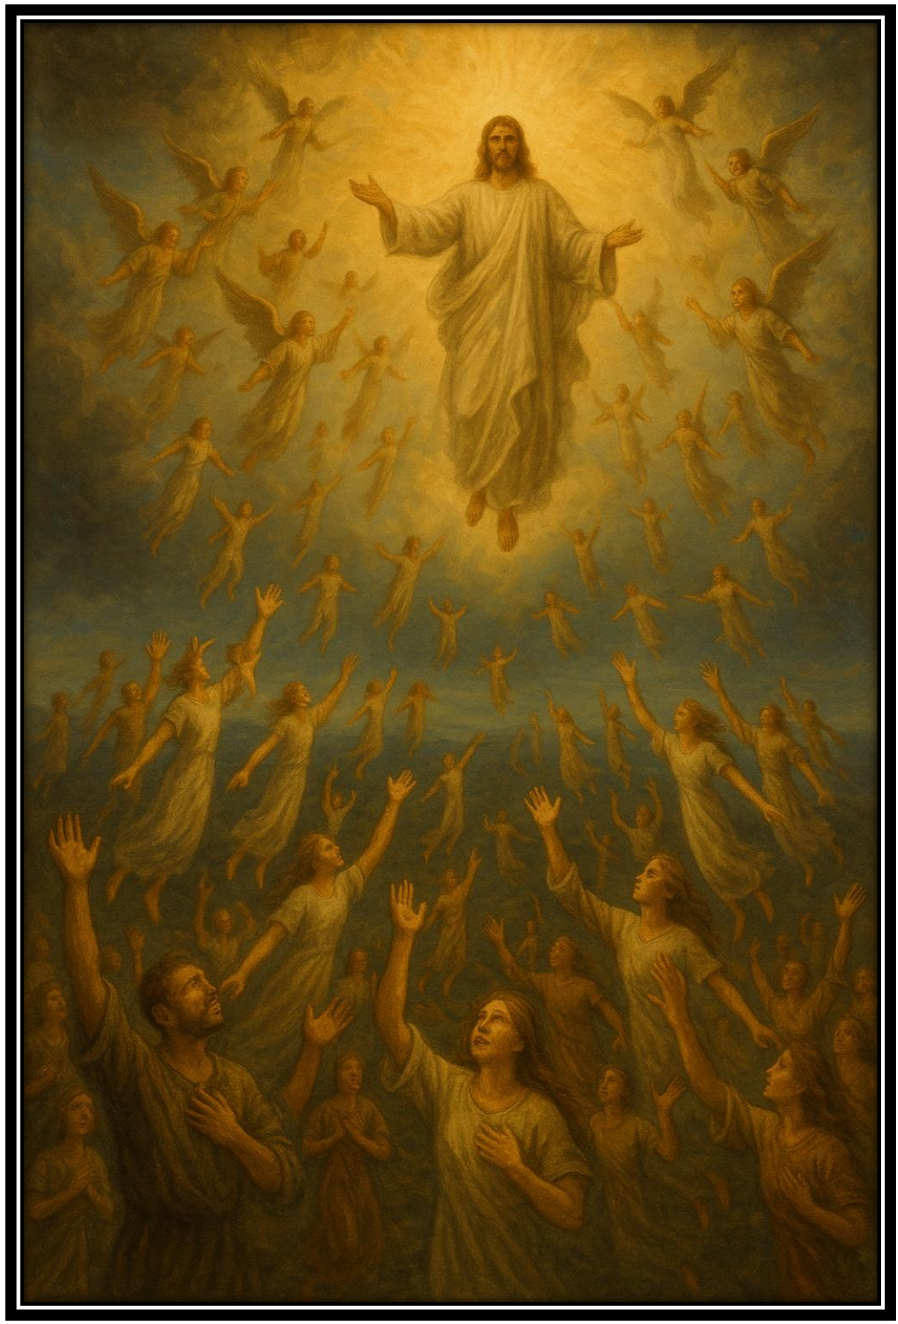
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me,
His Word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Amazing Grace (Simplified)

God's amazing grace—it sounds so beautiful,
It saved someone as lost as I was.
I used to be completely off course,
But now I've been found.
I couldn't see the truth before,
But now it's clear.
It was grace that taught me to respect God,
And that same grace calmed my deepest fears.
The moment I first trusted in Him,
I saw how valuable that grace really is.
God has promised good things for me;
His Word gives me hope that I can count on.
He will protect me and take care of me,
For all my life.
And when we've been with God forever—
Shining bright like the sun—
We'll still have just as many days
To worship Him as when we first started.



MATTHEW 24:40 (KJV 1900): 40 THEN SHALL TWO BE IN THE FIELD; THE ONE SHALL BE TAKEN, AND THE OTHER LEFT.

Where Are the Missing People?

A global event has just taken place—sudden, inexplicable, and terrifying. Millions of people have vanished without warning. Cars crashed mid-drive, planes fell from the sky, and in an instant, countless individuals disappeared before the eyes of stunned witnesses. Panic and chaos are sweeping the earth. While it seems like a mystery, this event was actually foretold in the Bible. This was the Rapture—Jesus Christ has returned to gather His followers to Himself, just as Scripture promised in 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18.

Who Was Taken?

The people who vanished were not abducted, lost, or victims of mass hysteria. They were true followers of Jesus Christ. Though they were imperfect human beings, they had believed in Him, repented of their sins, and accepted Him as Lord and Savior. According to John 3:16, Romans 10:9–10, and Ephesians 2:8–9, they were saved by grace through faith. These individuals were "born again," spiritually renewed and granted eternal life in Christ.

Why Are You Still Here?

If you are reading this, it means you were left behind. But you are not abandoned. God has not turned His back on you. There is still time for you to be saved. Jesus is calling you even now. The opportunity to believe in Him, repent of your sins, and confess Him as Lord remains open (Romans 10:9–10). Do not wait. Pray, surrender your life to Jesus Christ, and receive the salvation He freely offers.

What Should You Do Now?

To begin your new life in Christ, take the following steps:

1. Accept Christ: Pray a sincere prayer of salvation in faith.

2. Get a Bible: Begin reading the books of John, Romans, Psalms, and Revelation to understand God's love, truth, and plan.

3. Be Baptized: If possible, do this publicly as a testimony of faith. If not, do it privately.

4. Take Communion: Regularly remember Jesus' sacrifice for your salvation.

5. Be Filled with the Holy Spirit: Ask God to empower you and guide you with His presence.

Connect With Other Believers

In the aftermath of the Rapture, many others will come to faith in Christ. Seek them out. Even in a world filled with chaos and fear, Christians will form secret gatherings, home fellowships, and underground churches. These small communities will be vital for spiritual growth, encouragement, and protection. As Hebrews 10:25 and Proverbs 27:17 affirm, fellowship strengthens faith and perseverance.

The Mark of the Beast

Soon, a powerful world leader will arise and enforce a mark—required for buying and selling—described in Revelation 13:16–18. You must not accept this mark under any circumstances. Taking it is an act of eternal rejection of Jesus Christ. Revelation 14:9–11 clearly warns that those who receive it will face God’s judgment. Refuse it, even if it costs you your life.

Can You Still Be Saved?

Yes—absolutely. The Bible promises in Joel 2:32, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” God's love remains, and

He will strengthen you to endure whatever comes (2 Timothy 4:18). Though these days are dark, many will still come to Christ. You are not alone.

The Second Coming and Final Hope

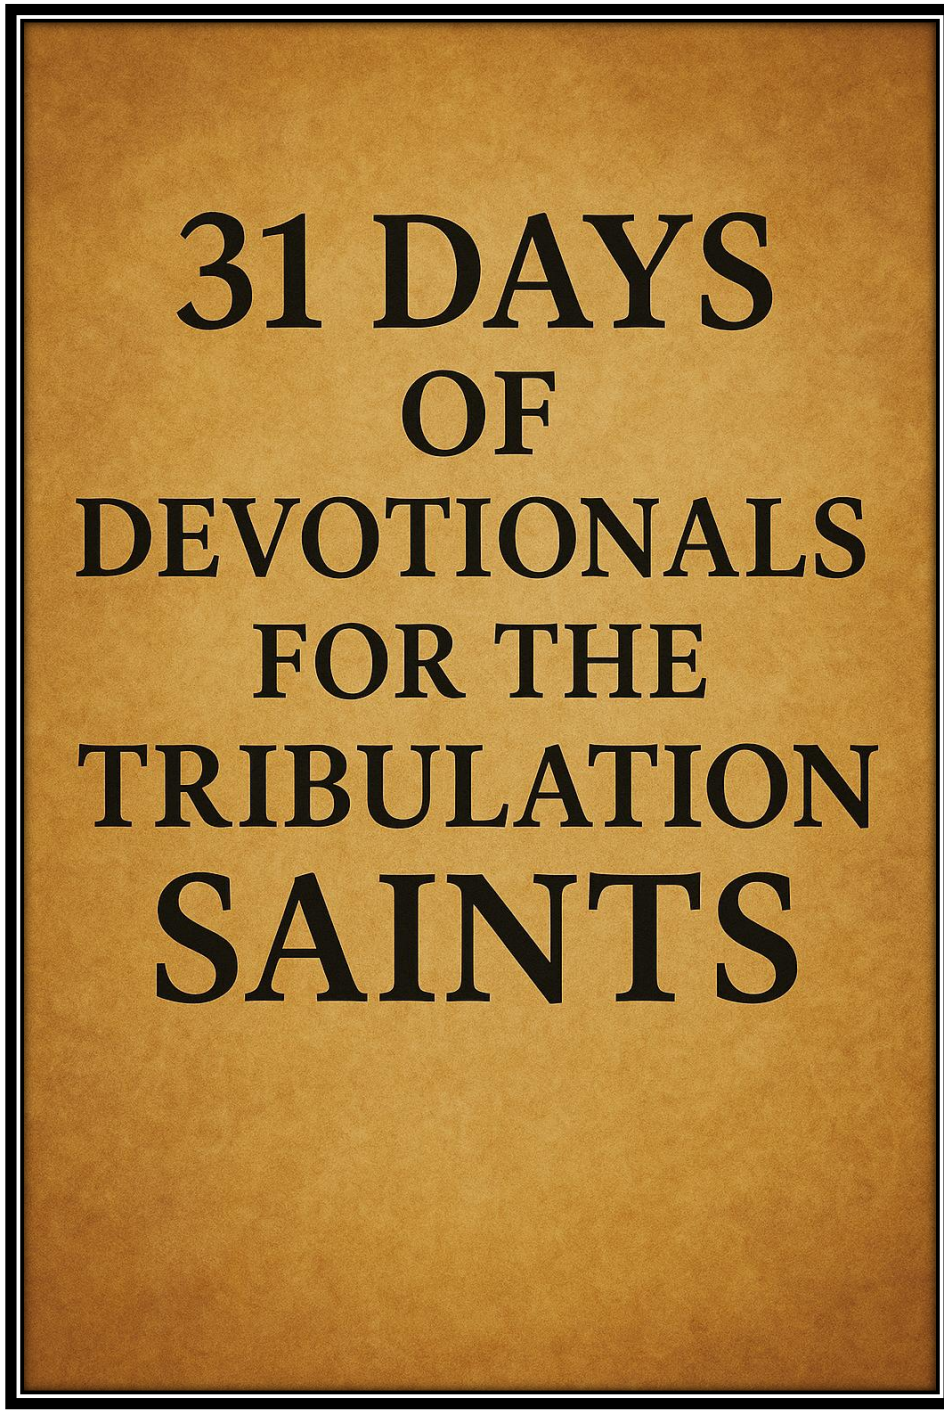
After seven years of tribulation, Jesus Christ will return again—this time not to rescue, but to reign. He will defeat evil, judge the world, and establish a kingdom that will last for a thousand years (Revelation 19–20). If you are faithful during this time, you will reign with Him (Revelation 20:4). Endure to the end. Obey His Word. Hold fast to your faith. For those who remain faithful, eternal joy and peace are promised in Revelation 21–22.

A Prayer of Salvation

If you are ready to turn your life over to Jesus, pray this prayer in sincerity:

"Lord Jesus, I am a sinner. I believe You died for my sins and rose again. I confess You as my Lord. I repent and turn to You. Please forgive me, save me, and fill me with Your Spirit. I give You my life. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Repeat it. Share it. Live it. The time is short, but salvation is still within reach.



31 DAYS
FOR THE TRIBULATION SAINTS

Day 1

📖 Devotional: Faithful in the Fire
Scripture:
"And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth."
— Revelation 11:3

💭 Reflection
In the darkest days the world has ever seen, God still sends light.
The Two Witnesses are a reminder that even when evil seems to rule, God has not gone silent. These two boldly speak truth, call for repentance, and perform miracles—all while being hated, hunted, and eventually killed.
But even death couldn't silence them. God raised them up and brought them home in glory.
Maybe today you feel surrounded by spiritual darkness. Maybe standing for truth has made you feel alone, attacked, or unseen. But the same God who empowered the Two Witnesses empowers you. If you belong to Christ, you are also a witness.

🙏 Prayer
Father, make me bold like Your witnesses.
Help me speak truth even when it's not safe,
love others even when it's hard,
and trust You even when I don't understand the outcome.
Thank You that even in the fire, You are with me.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
You don't need to be famous to be faithful.
Just be willing—God will give the power.
Be His witness. Even now. Especially now.

Day 2

📖 Devotional: Blessed in the Battle
Scripture:
"Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand."
— Revelation 1:3

🕊️ Reflection
You may feel overwhelmed by what's unfolding, but don't miss this: there is a blessing promised for those who read, hear, and keep the words of this prophecy. God does not leave His people in the dark. Revelation was written not to scare us, but to prepare us.
During this time of intense trial, the Word of God becomes your anchor. As you remain faithful, you receive a blessing the world cannot take away—not wealth or comfort, but peace, purpose, and perseverance.

🙏 Prayer
Lord, help me treasure Your Word above all.
Let me hear what You are saying, and give me strength to obey.
In a world of deception, help me stand on truth.
Bless me as I trust You through every trial.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
The time is short.
Stay in the Word.
You are not forgotten—you are blessed.

Day 3

📖 Devotional: The Faithful Witness
Scripture:
"…from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead… Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood."
— Revelation 1:5

💭 Reflection
In a world of lies, Jesus stands as the Faithful Witness.
He bore truth even to death—and rose again to give life to those who believe. During the Great Tribulation, when truth is rare and loyalty to Jesus is costly, remember who loved you first.
He washed you in His own blood. He conquered death.
If He was faithful unto death for you, you can be faithful unto death for Him.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus, You are the Faithful One.
Remind me that I belong to You,
that I am washed, redeemed, and not alone.
Give me courage to bear witness like You did.
In Your name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
You follow a risen King.
He was faithful.
Now it's your turn.

Day 4

📖 Devotional: Eyes Like Fire
Scripture:
"His eyes were as a flame of fire… and his voice as the sound of many waters."
— Revelation 1:14–15

🤔 Reflection
Jesus sees everything. His eyes pierce through the lies of the enemy, the masks of the world, and even the fears in your heart. His voice speaks like rushing waters—drowning out every whisper of doubt.
He is not a weak Savior. He is fierce in holiness, mighty in power, and tender toward those who belong to Him.
When others see you as weak, remember who watches over you.

🤲 Prayer
Lord Jesus,
See me in my struggle,
Speak peace into my heart,
And burn away every lie with the fire of Your gaze.
Keep me close to You.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
He sees.
He knows.
He reigns.

Day 5

📖 Devotional: Do Not Be Afraid
Scripture:
"Fear not; I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore…"
— Revelation 1:17–18

🕊️ Reflection
Fear will knock at your door in these perilous times.
But listen to the voice of Jesus: "Fear not."
Why? Because the One who holds the keys of death and hell is on your side.
He has already walked through death—and defeated it.
You are not following a weak idea or a fading hope.
You are following the living Christ.

🤲 Prayer
Jesus,
When fear rises, remind me that You are alive forever.
You were before time, and You will be after.
Help me walk in boldness,
Knowing that You hold the keys to everything I fear.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Don't fear the storm.
Fear the One who calms it—and trust Him.

Day 6

📖 Devotional: Overcomers Eat from the Tree of Life
Scripture:
"To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God."
— Revelation 2:7

🎨 Reflection
To overcome means to keep your faith when the world pushes you to compromise.
In the Tribulation, that pressure intensifies—but so does the reward.
Eternal life isn't just escape from death; it's communion with God forever.
The tree of life was lost in Eden—but it's promised again to those who conquer through Christ.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
Keep my heart from giving in.
Even when the cost is high, help me overcome.
Remind me of the paradise You've prepared,
And let that vision sustain me.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
You weren't made for this broken world.
You were made for Paradise.
Hold on.

Day 7

📖 Devotional: Rich in Tribulation
Scripture:
"I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich)…"
— Revelation 2:9

🤔 Reflection
Earthly riches will vanish. But Jesus sees the riches that remain: your faith, your endurance, your loyalty.
He knows the cost you are paying to follow Him. He knows the slander, the rejection, the suffering.
But He also knows the treasure being built in eternity.
To the world you may seem poor—but in heaven's economy, you are wealthy beyond measure.

🙏 Prayer
Lord,
Help me not envy the rich who reject You.
Let me find my worth in what You see,
Not in what the world applauds.
Make me rich in love, in faith, in perseverance.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Poverty in the flesh
Can be riches in the Spirit.
Jesus sees the difference.

Day 8

📖 Devotional: Be Faithful Unto Death
Scripture:
"...be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."
— Revelation 2:10

🎨 Reflection
The call to follow Christ has never been casual. In the Tribulation, it is a call to die well.
But the promise is just as strong: those who remain faithful—even to death—will receive a crown not made of gold, but of life itself.
Satan may throw his worst at you, but he cannot steal your eternal reward.
Hold the line. Jesus is watching. Your crown is real.

🙏 Prayer
Lord Jesus,
You wore a crown of thorns so I could wear a crown of life.
Strengthen me to be faithful,
Even when the cost is everything.
May I never deny You.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
They may take your breath,
But they cannot take your eternal life.
Your crown is coming.

Day 9

📖 Devotional: Where Satan Dwells
Scripture:
"...thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr..."
— Revelation 2:13

💭 Reflection
Some of you are standing for Jesus in places ruled by evil, where compromise is demanded and persecution is real.
You are in "Satan's seat"—yet you hold fast. You are not forgotten. Jesus sees every stand you make.
Antipas stood firm even to death, and Jesus calls him "faithful."
What the world calls foolish, heaven calls faithful.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
When I feel surrounded by darkness,
Remind me You see me.
Strengthen me to hold fast to Your name,
Even in the enemy's territory.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
Your location doesn't define you—
Your loyalty does.

Day 10

📖 Devotional: Repent Before He Returns
Scripture:
"Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly…"
— Revelation 2:16

💭 Reflection
The time of mercy is still open—but not forever.
Jesus calls His people to repent, not just once, but continually.
Compromise may seem small now, but it grows quickly into rebellion.
Before He returns as Judge, He reaches as Savior.
Repent now. Return now.
He is ready to forgive.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Search my heart and shine light on any compromise.
Give me a heart that grieves over sin,
And delights in Your holiness.
Help me not delay.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Delayed repentance
Is disobedience in disguise.
Turn now. He is merciful.

Day 11

📖 Devotional: Hold Fast Till He Comes
Scripture:
"But that which ye have already hold fast till I come."
— Revelation 2:25

🤔 Reflection
In times of persecution, endurance is victory.
You may not feel powerful, but your perseverance is precious to God.
Don't let go of the truth you already know. Don't trade your purity, your faith, or your calling for the lies of the Beast.
Hold fast—not to survival, but to Jesus.
He is coming.

🙏 Prayer
Lord,
Let me not lose what You've given me.
Keep me faithful with the truth,
Pure in heart, and strong in spirit.
Even when my strength fades, let my grip on You hold firm.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
You don't need new revelations—
You need to hold fast to the truth you already have.

Day 12

📖 Devotional: Clothed in White
Scripture:
"He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment…"
— Revelation 3:5

🎨 Reflection
You may be surrounded by the filth of a fallen world—but in heaven, you are seen as clothed in white.
Not because of your perfection, but because of Christ's righteousness.
He has not forgotten your faithfulness. He will not blot out your name. He will confess you before His Father.
That's your future. Pure. Seen. Secure.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Thank You for the white garments of grace.
Help me to walk in holiness,
To repent when I stumble,
And to keep looking to You.
Cover me with what I cannot earn.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Your robe isn't earned by works—
It's received through faith.

Day 13

📖 Devotional: The Open Door
Scripture:
"Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it…"
— Revelation 3:8

🤔 Reflection
You may feel powerless in this world, but Jesus holds the keys.
What He opens, no one can shut.
Even in the midst of persecution, there is a door of ministry, of worship, of witness—open before you.
Step through it.
Your weakness doesn't disqualify you—it glorifies His strength.

🙏 Prayer
Lord,
Thank You for the open door.
Give me courage to walk through it in faith.
I trust that You are leading me, even when I feel small.
Let Your power be made perfect in my weakness.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
You don't need strength to open the door—
Just faith to walk through it.

Day 14

📖 Devotional: Kept from the Hour
Scripture:
"Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation…"
— Revelation 3:10

🎨 Reflection
God never forgets those who endure.
While judgment comes upon the earth, He promises protection and reward to those who patiently kept His Word.
In the Tribulation, God still shields, still seals, still saves.
Whatever you face today—remember, your endurance is not wasted.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
Strengthen me to keep Your Word,
Even when the world mocks or threatens.
I trust that You will keep me,
As I remain in You.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Your perseverance is not invisible.
God sees. God keeps.

Day 15

📖 Devotional: Crown Stealers
Scripture:
"...hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown."
— Revelation 3:11

🤔 Reflection
You have a crown waiting—but beware: it can be lost.
Not taken by accident, but forfeited by compromise.
The enemy can't steal your salvation, but he'll tempt you to trade your reward for comfort, fear, or acceptance.
Don't let it happen. You're too close. Hold fast.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
I want to finish well.
Keep me from compromise.
Guard my heart from distraction, and my mind from deception.
Help me value eternal things more than temporary relief.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Your crown is already yours—
Don't trade it. Don't drop it. Don't quit.

Day 16

📖 Devotional: Lukewarm No More
Scripture:
"So then because thou art lukewarm… I will spue thee out of my mouth."
— Revelation 3:16

🎨 Reflection
There is no middle ground in this hour.
Lukewarm faith may look religious—but it's nauseating to God.
This is a time for burning hearts, not comfortable souls.
If your walk has grown cold or casual, repent quickly. Jesus is still knocking. Let Him in. Let Him reign.

🙏 Prayer
Lord,
Search me and shake me.
Break off all lukewarmness.
Let my heart burn again with love for You—pure, passionate, and surrendered.
You deserve my all.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Jesus doesn't want part of you.
He died for all of you.

Day 17

📖 Devotional: Gold Tried in the Fire
Scripture:
"I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich…"
— Revelation 3:18

🤔 Reflection
True riches aren't found in survival, wealth, or status—but in what lasts through the fire.
Jesus invites you to invest in eternity.
Suffering strips away the false. Tribulation reveals the true.
Let your faith be refined—not burned away. What you lose in this life, you will gain tenfold in the next.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Make me rich in what matters.
Refine me like gold, even if it costs me everything.
I want to be found faithful, not fake.
Help me see with Your eyes.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
The fire that tests you
Is the same fire that purifies you.

Day 18

📖 Devotional: Knock, and Open
Scripture:
“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock…”
— Revelation 3:20

🎨 Reflection
Even now—after compromise, distraction, or fear—
Jesus is still knocking.
He doesn't force His way in. He waits for your invitation.
The world is loud, but His knock is clear.
If you open the door, He doesn’t bring condemnation. He brings communion.

🤲 Prayer
Lord Jesus,
I open the door.
Come in and reign.
Let my heart be Your home,
And my life Your table.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
He knocks not to punish—
But to dine with you.

Day 19

📖 Devotional: Worthy is the Lamb
Scripture:
"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength…"
— Revelation 5:12

🕊️ Reflection
In a world bowing to the Beast, the Lamb still reigns.
He was slain—but He rose.
He is worthy—not just of praise in heaven, but of your life on earth.
When others deny Him, let your worship grow louder.
You were redeemed to glorify Him.

🙏 Prayer
Worthy are You, Jesus.
Worthy of my devotion, my obedience, my praise.
Keep me from giving glory to any other.
Let my life shout what heaven already knows—
You alone are worthy.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
The Lamb wins.
Stay with Him.

Day 20

📖 Devotional: The Sealed and the Safe
Scripture:
"...till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads."
— Revelation 7:3

🤔 Reflection
In the midst of judgment, God knows how to protect His own.
Before the earth is harmed, His servants are sealed—not with visible armor, but with divine identity.
This seal is more powerful than any earthly protection.
You may be hated by the world, but you are marked by God.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
Thank You that You know who are Yours.
Seal me by Your Spirit.
Let me walk in the boldness that comes from being claimed by Heaven.
Though the earth shakes, let me stand firm in You.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
You are not hidden from harm—
You are hidden in Him.

Day 21

📖 Devotional: The Great Multitude
Scripture:
"...a great multitude, which no man could number...
stood before the throne, and before the Lamb..."
— Revelation 7:9

🤔 Reflection
You are not alone.
Countless others—just like you—have endured,
overcome, and stood firm.
Some lost homes. Others lost their lives.
But now they stand in glory, robed in white,
worshiping the Lamb.
This is your future. Keep going. The crowd is waiting.

🙏 Prayer
Lord Jesus,
Thank You for the faithful ones who've gone before me.
Help me follow in their footsteps,
Endure my trials,
And finish my race with worship on my lips.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Heaven is not empty.
It is filled with those who refused to quit.

Day 22

📖 Devotional: Washed in the Blood
Scripture:
"These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes… in the blood of the Lamb."
— Revelation 7:14

🎨 Reflection
You may be walking through the fire now—but you won't come out stained.
Those who endure the Great Tribulation are not defined by what they suffered, but by Who they trusted.
The blood of the Lamb washes not just your past, but your present and future.
You will be made clean. You will be made whole.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Thank You for the cleansing power of Your blood.
When the world defiles, You purify.
When life wounds, You heal.
Make me faithful until that day when I stand before You in white.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
You may walk through tribulation,
But you'll stand in triumph.

Day 23

📖 Devotional: Silence in Heaven
Scripture:
"And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven…"
— Revelation 8:1

🤔 Reflection
Even heaven pauses.
As the judgments intensify, the hosts of heaven grow still—no singing, no shouting, only silence.
Why? Because what is coming is weighty.
If heaven doesn't take God's wrath lightly, neither should we.
But for those who are sealed, this silence is not fear—it is awe.

🙏 Prayer
Holy God,
Let me never treat Your justice casually.
Give me a heart that trembles at Your holiness,
And rejoices in Your mercy.
Teach me to worship with reverence and wonder.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
God's silence is never absence—
It is sacred preparation.

Day 24

📖 Devotional: The Prayers of the Saints
Scripture:
"...the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God..."
— Revelation 8:4

🎨 Reflection
You may feel your prayers go unnoticed—but in heaven, they rise like incense before the throne.
God sees every cry, every whisper, every groan.
Even when the world rejects your voice, heaven receives it with reverence.
Keep praying. Your words are not wasted—they're stored before the King.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
Thank You for hearing me when no one else does.
Let my prayers rise in faith,
Not because of my words, but because of Your mercy.
Let my cries be incense in Your holy presence.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Your prayers are not forgotten—
They are fragrant.

Day 25

📖 Devotional: Woe to the Earth
Scripture:
"Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth…"
— Revelation 8:13

💭 Reflection
The world may scoff at prophecy now, but the warnings are real.
Three great woes are announced—and each one carries devastation.
But you, beloved, are not destined for wrath. You are marked by mercy.
Let this warning stir your urgency—not in fear, but in faithfulness.

🤲 Prayer
Lord,
The time is short.
Make me alert, sober, and faithful.
Let me live as one who has been warned,
And one who will warn others.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
God's warnings aren't to paralyze you—
They're to prepare you.

Day 26

📖 Devotional: The Bottomless Pit Unleashed
Scripture:
"...to him was given the key of the bottomless pit."
— Revelation 9:1

🪞 Reflection
Hell is no myth.
There will come a day when its gates are opened and torment unleashed.
For those who reject God's seal, there is no refuge.
But for those sealed by the Lamb, even the horrors of hell cannot touch them.
Choose now. Stand firm. Stay sealed.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Seal me with Your name.
Let me never take lightly what You saved me from.
Even as judgment falls, let me shine with Your mercy.
Keep me close to You.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
When hell rises—
Heaven still reigns.

Day 27

📖 Devotional: They Repented Not
Scripture:
"...and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts."
— Revelation 9:21

🤔 Reflection
God sends warnings, plagues, even signs in the sky—but many still refuse to repent.
This is the tragedy of hardened hearts: not that they sin, but that they cling to it.
Let it not be so with you.
Even now, be quick to repent, quick to return.
Soft hearts survive the fire.

🙏 Prayer
Father,
Keep my heart soft.
Break any pride, stubbornness, or sin in me.
Let me repent quickly, love deeply, and obey faithfully.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

✨ Remember:
God never turns away the one
Who truly turns to Him.

Day 28

📖 Devotional: Overcoming by the Blood
Scripture:
"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony…"
— Revelation 12:11

🎨 Reflection
Victory in the Tribulation is not won through weapons or hiding—it's won through the blood of Jesus and the testimony of the faithful.
Your words matter. Your loyalty matters.
Even if it costs your life, you will not be defeated.
The blood has already won your war. Your testimony just seals it.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Thank You for Your blood that makes me clean and victorious.
Give me boldness to speak Your truth.
Let my life—and death, if needed—be a testimony to Your glory.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
You don't overcome by might—
You overcome by the blood and your story.

Day 29

📖 Devotional: The Mark and the Choice
Scripture:
"...no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark..."
— Revelation 13:17

💭 Reflection
The world will demand your loyalty—and offer comfort in return.
The mark of the beast is more than economics. It's allegiance.
Following Christ may cost you everything here—but giving in will cost you everything forever.
Don't bow. Don't sell out. Eternity is at stake.

🙏 Prayer
Lord God,
Give me the courage to resist the beast.
Let me never trade my soul for survival.
Strengthen me to stand when the pressure rises.
You are worth it all.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
Comfort now
Can cost your crown forever.

Day 30

📖 Devotional: The Winepress of Wrath
Scripture:
"...the great winepress of the wrath of God."
— Revelation 14:19

💭 Reflection
God's wrath is not a myth or a metaphor—it's justice fully poured out.
Every lie, every injustice, every rebellion will meet its end.
The winepress will be trodden. The blood will flow.
But if you are in Christ, your judgment fell on Him.
Fear not the wrath—rejoice in the mercy.

🙏 Prayer
Righteous Judge,
I tremble at Your holiness,
And I rejoice in Your mercy.
Thank You that the Lamb took my judgment.
Keep me from vengeance and grounded in Your justice.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
The wrath of God is real—
But so is the refuge in Christ.

Day 31

📖 Devotional: The New Jerusalem
Scripture:
"And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven…"
— Revelation 21:2

🤔 Reflection
This is what we've been waiting for.
Not just escape from evil, but entrance into glory.
No more pain. No more death. No more tears.
You didn't endure just to survive—you endured to enter.
The city is ready. The Lamb is there. So are you.

🙏 Prayer
Jesus,
Thank You for preparing a place for me.
Let the hope of the New Jerusalem carry me through every sorrow.
Come quickly, Lord.
And until You do—keep me faithful.
Amen.

✨ Remember:
This isn't the end.
It's the beginning of forever.

Revelation 19:11 (KJV 1900): 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.
